Posted Results:

Each driver is responsible to check the posted results on the lower level of the Race Control Building within 10 minutes of their race. The results will stand outside of this 10-minute period, at which point, no discussions, or correspondence will be entered into.

Drivers Briefing:

Driver's briefing will be held in the club rooms at 3.30 pm.

This is for drivers only

Noise:

Noise levels will be adhered to as per the current Speedway New Zealand Rule Book. A maximum noise level of 95dba will be strictly enforced.
If you exceed this limit you will be notified by the Steward, and you will be required to make the appropriate changes to your race car to ensure its compliant.
If you continue to exceed the limit, you may be removed from the race along with the results of that race.

Race Format (depending on number of entries)

The number of cars in the heats and the number of heats may change depending on the number of competitors. All drivers will be divided into seeded groups. Drivers draw their first grid position by marble draw. Each group will race two heats and the starting grid from the second heat will be an Inversion of the first heat for each group. Each driver accumulates points depending on heat finish positions.

Restarts:

All restarts will be double file.

Feature grid is determined from heat points

The top 12-point scoring drivers in the heats qualify for the feature.

Semi-Main(s)

The remaining drivers' race in the two semi-mains and the top four finishers from each, move to the feature and will take up the remaining grids. The winners of each semi-main will transfer to row 7 of the grids, the fastest time from their semi-main determines who starts on Grid 13. The same process is to be used for the remaining drivers transferring from the semi-mains.

There will be NO Promoters choice.

Number of laps in heat races and semi-main(s).

The number of laps in the heat races will be 12 laps. The number of laps in the semi-mains will be 12 laps.

Equal on Points

If drivers are equal on points after their heats, their position will be decided by the fastest lap Recorded during the heats.

New Zealand Midget Grand Prix Feature

The maximum number of cars in the final is 20. The winner of the 30-lap final will be the 2018/2019 New Zealand Midget Grand Prix Champion
